EXPLORE AN ABANDONED WELSH SLATE MINE
WITH ONE OF WALES' TOP MINE EXPLORERS

Deep in the mountains of Southern Snowdonia

TRY something different

Explore the virtually untouched, historic workings of an old Welsh slate mine. First worked in 1836 and abandoned by the miners 40 years ago, more than 130 years of mining history is captured inside awaiting discovery.

Come, explore and step into the tough working lives of the miners of past generations...
