Frequently Asked Questions

How far in advance do we need to book?
Our diary gets very busy so we advise to book at least a month in advance.

Can we use Tŷ'r Pererin for part of the day?
Tŷ'r Pererin can be booked hourly if you don't want to spend the whole day here.

Can we use just part of the building?
There are various areas which can be used for different activities and you can book these separately. Come and visit to see what's available.

Can we provide our own food?
There is a small industrial kitchen where you can cook and prepare food or you can invite an outside caterer to prepare food for you. Please note this has to be done under strict health and safety guidelines.

Are there resources for our use?
We have audio and visual facilities, chairs and tables to seat 80 people, tea and coffee making facilities.

Are there facilities for those with special needs?
Tŷ'r Pererin and the Cathedral are both wheelchair accessible and the Education and Pilgrimage Centre has audio equipment suitable for those with hearing difficulties, also toilet facilities and parking for the disabled.

The Building

The Entrance Hall can be used to register people at your event or for a small group meeting. It has access into the grounds at the rear and front of the building.

The Pentice

Built to replicate the cathedral cloisters, this is a special place for a drinks reception, intimate supper or an art workspace. It has views to the cathedral tower and surrounding countryside.

Main Hall

The Main Hall can be divided to give you two smaller spaces at the North or South of the building.

This room can accommodate 80 people 'lecture theatre' style or 72 seated around tables. There are 9 folding tables and 80+ chairs.

The room is equipped with audio-visual facilities including a large screen, in-built projector and sockets for sound and laptop connection. Wi-fi is available.

Kitchen

The kitchen has a gas cooker, microwave, fridge and freezer. A water heater is used for instant hot water for drinks.
